

Product Safety Recall

Push n Go Vehicles

Keycode – 42563655.

Available at Kmart stores in New Zealand between January 2018 - January 2019.

Defect: The products were manufactured, designed, labelled and marketed for use by children 3+ and comply with relevant safety standards for children aged 3+. The products will not comply with the mandatory product safety standard for toys for children up to and including 36 months of age (AS/NZS ISO 8124.1.2002) and should not be used by children under the ages of 3.

Hazard: If products are handled by a child aged under 3, small parts may pose a potential choking or ingestion hazard.

What to do: Customers should cease using these products immediately and return the products to any Kmart store in New Zealand for a full refund.
